Shurgard signs a purchase agreement for a land in London

LUXEMBOURG – Shurgard, the largest developer, owner and operator of self-storage centers in Europe – has signed a purchase agreement for a land in central east London and is expecting to receive a building permit for a new storage facility during the course of 2020.

This project will complement our 31 properties (c. 1.8 million square feet) in London.

The future c. 85,000 sq ft self-storage property is set to open by mid-2021 and will offer approximately 1,500 self-storage units to the London area.

About Shurgard

Shurgard is the largest provider of self-storage solutions in Europe. The company owns and/or operates 238 self-storage centers and approximately 1.2 million net rentable square meters in 7 countries: the Netherlands, France, Sweden, the United Kingdom, Belgium, Germany and Denmark.

Shurgard's European network currently serves 160,000 customers and employs approximately 700 people. Shurgard is listed on Euronext Brussels under the symbol "SHUR".
