ANA GIROS CALPE APPOINTED CEO OF THE EUROPE - LATIN AMERICA BUSINESS UNIT WITHIN THE INTERNATIONAL DIVISION OF SUEZ

On 1 October 2015, Ana Giros Calpe will join SUEZ's International Division as the Chief Executive Officer of the Europe-Latin America business unit.

Ana Giros Calpe will be in charge of the management and the development of all the Group's Water & Waste activities for municipal and industrial customers in non-EU European countries, in the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS) and in several countries in Latin America, including Brazil and Mexico.

Ana Giros Calpe will also be responsible for developing DBO activities (Design, Build and Operate of water treatment facilities) and Industrial solutions for public authorities and industry in EU countries.

Ana Giros Calpe will join the teams managed by Marie-Ange Debon, Group Senior Executive Vice-President in charge of the International Division, and will become a member of SUEZ's executive committee.

41-year old Ana Giros Calpe is a graduate engineer of the Barcelona Polytechnic University and the INSEAD business school. In 1997, Ana Giros Calpe joined Alstom Transport, where she occupied different positions, before becoming the Managing Director of Alstom Transport France Division in May 2014.

SUEZ

We are at the dawn of the resource revolution. In a world facing high demographic growth, runaway urbanisation and the shortage of natural resources, securing, optimising and renewing resources is essential to our future. SUEZ (Paris: SEV, Brussels: SEVB) supplies drinking water to 92 million people, delivers wastewater treatment services to 65 million, collects waste produced by almost 50 million, recovers 14 million tons of waste each year and produces 5,138 GWh of local and renewable energy. With 80,990 employees, SUEZ, which is present on all five continents, is a key player in the sustainable management of resources. SUEZ generated total revenues of €14.3 billion in 2014.
